

Pasco County Title 1 School Level
Parent and Family Engagement Plan 2022-2023

Richey Elementary School

Each Title I school shall jointly develop with parents and family members of participating children, a written plan that shall describe how the school will carry out the requirements mentioned below. Parents shall be notified of the plan in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practical, provided in a language the parents can understand. The school plan must be made available to the local community and updated and agreed on by parents periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

School's vision for engaging families:

We exist to create a safe, empathetic, inclusive environment, where all participants can positively impact the global community through an inquiry process using strong instruction, deep engagement, and high expectations, to develop collaborative, compassionate, and confident learners.

What is Required:

Assurances: We will:

- Involve an adequate representation of parents, or establish a parent advisory board to represent families, in developing and evaluating the "School Parent and Family Engagement Plan" that describes how the school will carry out its required family engagement activities.
- Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved. Offer other meetings/workshops at flexible times.
- Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are to be used.
- Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program.
- Develop a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement and describes how parents and teachers will communicate.
- Offer assistance to parents in understanding the education system and the state standards, and how to support their children's achievement.
- Provide materials and training to help parents support their child's learning at home. Educate teachers and other school staff, including school leaders, on how to engage families effectively.
- Coordinate with other federal and state programs, including preschool programs.
- Provide information in a format and language parents can understand, and offer information in other languages as feasible.

EVERY TITLE I SCHOOL IN PASCO COUNTY WILL:

- 1. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of their Comprehensive Needs Assessment and Title I program. The school will jointly develop and evaluate the Parent & Family Engagement plan with an adequate representation of parents.

Describe the method in which parents were involved	We used our School Advisory Council, as well as designed a survey for all parents to complete as resources to gain parent input. We utilize social media, school messenger, as well as various other platforms to communicate with parents. Using the data collected, the members of the SAC worked with administration to discuss how Title 1 funds will be used to further school improvement.
Date of meeting to gather parent input for Comprehensive Needs Assessment	A Comprehensive Needs Assessment survey was distributed, and results analyzed in March of the 21-22 school year. Results were analyzed by SLT and SAC in order to determine trends and need areas for further discussion.
Date of meeting to gather parent input for this Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan	Throughout the school year and during the month of March 2023.

Evidence of the input gathered and how it was/will be used should be uploaded to Title I Crate.*

- 2. Develop a school-home compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement and describes how parents & teachers will communicate.

How were parents invited to develop or revise the compact?	Members of the SAC committee, as well as other parent volunteers were invited to provide input.
Date of parent meeting to develop or revise the compact	3/28/22
What communication methods will be used between teachers & parents as well as school & parents?	Planners, email, phone, School Messenger, Face to Face Conferences, Open House, school website, content night, IB informational events, and Conference Nights
Elementary schools are required to hold at least one face to face conference with parents. Explain your process?	All teachers invite families to come in for conferences through the quarterly progress/report cards, as well as during open conference nights.

A parent signed copy of the compact should be uploaded to Title I Crate as evidence of implementation.*

Evidence of the input should be uploaded to Title I Crate.*

- 3. Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved.

What information is provided at the meeting? How are parents notified of the meeting?	Title I information is shared with families during the annual Open House. Parents are invited to the Open House via Facebook, parent/teacher communication, school website and posted at school site.
Tentative date and time(s) of the Annual Title I Meeting and steps taken to plan the meeting	Administration collaborated with teacher teams to present information to parents during Open House. Information was also shared during SAC.

5. Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are used.

Allocation	N/A
Explain how these funds will be used this school year	Two instructional coaches, behavior support personnel, various professional development for staff, instructional assistants, technology, and curriculum resources.
How are parents involved in deciding this?	Input was gathered via parent surveys throughout the 21-22 school year.
How did you document parent input?	Parent surveys were gathered during the 21-22 school year and will be gathered during the 22-23 school year for further input.

6. Provide assistance, training, workshops, events, and/or meetings for parents to help them understand the education system, curriculum, standards, state assessments and achievement levels.

- Best practice is to hold parent events that teach caregivers a new tip, tool, or strategy, that parents can use at home with their child to help reinforce what they are learning in the classroom.
- Think of Family Engagement as a strategy to reach the goal of student achievement
- Offer workshops, events and/or meetings at flexible dates/times. (i.e. morning, evening, lunch, Saturdays). Provide information to parents in a timely manner and in an easy to read format.

Explain how parents are provided information regarding the curriculum, achievement levels, progress monitoring and assessments.		Information is shared by teacher leaders, Instructional Coaches, teachers and administration during parent/teacher conferences, Tasty Tidbits informational sessions, and parent letters. Information is also shared in the Parent Resource Center which is updated regularly.
How will workshops/events be evaluated? How will the needs of parents be assessed to plan future events?		Surveys will be provided for parents during the school year, as well as during some Tasty Tidbits informational sessions to determine the impact of the sessions. SAC will review the surveys to determine any barriers and resolve conflicts when necessary.
Describe how the needs of parents/families who speak a language other than English will be met at workshops/events.		The ESOL Assistant will be present during the workshops to translate when necessary.
What are the barriers for parents to attend workshops/events and how do you overcome these?		Previous surveys indicated a need for a variety of meeting/information sharing events and times. 73% of parents who responded to the survey reported that social media was the best forum for information gathering. Of the other options, 82% preferred printed material, 18% preferred the school website, and 45% of respondents preferred phone messages. (Note: some of the respondents had multiple preferences.) Mornings were determined to work better for 73% of parents and evenings were determined to work best for 36% of parents. We will conduct monthly Tasty

In addition we will offer our Tasty Tidbits as a virtual option for parents at various times throughout the year. Work related conflicts may impact attendance. Surveys will be provided and reviewed to determine better results when necessary. Weather has been a barrier in the past, as most parents are within walking distance to campus. Videos/minutes of information can be shared via social media.
How are flexible dates and times for meetings, events and/or workshops offered? (Give examples)	Morning, afternoon and evening times are available for a variety of events. Teachers accommodate parents during their planning time, am/pm in order to hold parent teacher conferences. PMP conferences will be held throughout the day in order to accommodate family work schedules. Tasty Tidbits and other informational sessions will occur throughout the year. Evening events occur throughout the year to build family/school relationships. Richey Royalty Breakfast will also occur monthly to celebrate students.
How are the needs of parents with disabilities accommodated to ensure they have access to meetings, workshops, and/or events?	Students and parents with disabilities are accommodated as necessary during all events. Phone conferences, home visits, virtual meetings, etc. can be conducted rather than face to face conferences if necessary.

These events should be included on the Data Collection Sheet for School Events.*

7. Utilize strategies to ensure meaningful Communication

Describe the methods that will be used to ensure meaningful, ongoing communication between home and school	The Title I parent meeting will take place at the beginning of the school year. An explanation of the Title I Program will be provided at the Open House in August/September. School newsletters and brochures will be provided to communicate information to parents as well. Social media will be frequently updated to continue the open line of communication. Parent surveys, evaluations forms, SAC member input and parent suggestions will be utilized to determine current and future processes/initiatives. Individual student planners are utilized as well for teacher/parent communication. Emails, School Messenger, and classroom texting apps also allow for open communication.
